SPEAKER-ELECT OF THE WISCONSIN STATE ASSEMBLY

Rep. Robin Vos
(608) 266-9171

SPEAKER-ELECT VOS ANNOUNCES COMMITTEE CHAIR ASSIGNMENTS

The new speaker makes history by establishing two committees with bipartisan chairs.

Madison...In an unprecedented move, Speaker-elect Robin Vos announced that two of the Assembly standing committees for the 101st Wisconsin State Legislature will have bipartisan leadership.

"Legislative committees are where most of the heavy lifting is done in creating legislation. I think that it's important that we have a bipartisan approach on some key issues," said Speaker-elect Vos.

Rep. Travis Tranel (R-Cuba City) and Rep. Leon Young (D-Milwaukee) will chair the State and Federal Relations Committee. Rep. Chris Kapenga (R-Delafield) and Rep. Jill Billings (D-LaCrosse) will chair the Constitution and Ethics Committee.

"The State and Federal Relations Committee was created in an attempt to maximize our ability to work together to find savings for taxpayers," said Speaker-elect Vos. "The Constitution and Ethics Committee will work to find a bipartisan consensus when clarifying and amending the state's ethics laws."

According to the Legislative Reference Bureau, it has been nearly 20 years since an Assembly standing committee had leaders from each party. In 1995-1996, Speaker David Prosser appointed Rep. Annette "Polly" Williams, a Milwaukee Democrat, as chair of the Urban Education Committee.¹

"I'm confident that the leaders of all the Assembly committees are ready to work across the aisle and make the tough decisions to address the issues facing our state," said Speaker-elect Vos.

The following is a complete listing of the standing committees and their chairs/vice chairs for the 2013-2014 legislative session.
